

February 19, 1954

Dear Mrs. Fawcett,

I have just returned from a trip to the Auditor's office in Davenport where I enquired about the huge social security deduction from your check of last month. They were pretty red-faced about it, and there will be an adjustment of some kind, you may be sure.

Yours very truly,

Elizabeth B. Hage